I hope this missive, late and brief though it is, finds you all well and happy. I owe the Shire populace an apology for the lack of news over the past 2 months. Rest assured, real life is back on track, and so the beloved Dream begins anew.

This newsletter will be very brief, but we're already starting on next month's so keep watching your emails.

Starting in January, groups (households, merchants, guilds, bunches of friends, etc) will be offered the opportunity to sponsor pages. Not for money, since this is a free publication, but for information! We want to know what's going on in these Modern Medieval Times and most especially in our little corner! Here's the guidelines:

- Groups may sponsor a full or 1/2 page in the Dragon's Breath.
- Submissions should be turned in no later than the 15th of the month previous to printing. (ie:Jan 15th articles will print in the Feb newsletter)
- No un-chivalrous materials will be printed. ('iffy' material will not be printed. Safe rather than sorry, guys)
- All appropriate copyrights and permissions must be submitted with the material.

So what are we looking for? Household updates or contact info, any neat articles/websites you've found recently, Guild activities, "No kidding, there we were" stories. Get your group's name out there! Raise awareness of your favorite guild! Just let me know if you're interested.

Again, my apologies for my distraction over the past months, and I look forward to continuing the newsletter.

I'm in the mood for making my garb pretty, so I went searching for some embroidery patterns. One of my first stops was Lord Kyl's Realm, where I found some beautiful patterns. This one I can see on a collar. Yes, I have more ambition than I do sense, but hey, it's a pretty idea!

Here are a couple of less intricate knots that might actually get done!

Images are from Lord Kyl's Realm, website of Lord Padraig MacKay of Kyle in the Barony of Sternfield. For fonts, clipart, and heraldic information visit his site at: www.lordkyl.net

This stylized Greek Gryphon would look very nice on a bag.

This could easily be traced out onto gold or silver plate (you can find that at Hobby Lobby in the miniatures/trains section), cut out, and put on a belt end.

For one of our recent projects, the CIA was looking for an easy pattern to use for Byzantine rondelles. When I saw this, that was the first thing that came to mind. This could very easily be traced out and painted onto leather for beautiful rondelles.

And yet another of the ambitious knotworks that could easily be adapted for a neckline or an armband.

It's Lady Emma's fault. If you haven't seen it, ask her to show off the "Tunic that took 2 years to finish". It's gorgeous and will definitely make you want to decorate everything. :o)
